HONOR VETERAN FARMERS

BRETTENHAM, Eng., (CP)—Veterans of the land have received special awards from the public agricultural committee in recognition of long and faithful service. One of the winners of this Suffolk village, Walter Last, has been a horseman on the same farm for 55 years, another, Sydney Souter, has worked on a local farm for 50 years.

PET PARADE AT CARNIVAL

A damp, drizzling rain did all but wash out the military band, carnival queen candidates and pet parade from the Court House grounds to the Seventh Street carnival park last evening but, in spite of the unauspicious condition of the weather, there was a brave if small turn-out of participants who were duly honored with the presentation of prizes at the stage on the carnival grounds on conclusion of the procession.

The feature of the parade was surrey-topped miniature jeep in which little Gary Miller, aged 3, and Sharon Kruger, 4, dressed quaintly in character, rode as bride and groom. Decorated bicycles and scooters were also turned out and the pet parade consisted of four canine entries.

The United States Army Port Band, under baton of Sergeant A. L. Manning, and H.M.C.S. Chatham Band, directed by Bandmaster Chief Petty Officer G. Noakes, provided smart marching music.

The carnival queen candidates rode in cars.

The awards of prizes were made as follows:

Novel vehicle, bridal jeep, Gary Miller and Sharon Kruger.

Decorated bicycle, over 12, Bill Watts.

Decorated bicycle, under 12, Paul Olsen.

Decorated scooter, over 10, Beverley Matson.

Decorated scooter, under 11, Audrey Moase.

Decorated tricycle, under 5, Roberta Moase.

Hunter with dog, Diane Cottam.

Prize-winning dogs in the pet parade were Jimmy McLean's setter, Tommy Graham's golden cocker, Donald McLeod's Scotch Terrier and Diane Cottam's cocker spaniel.

W. D. Lambie judged the vehicles and H. F. Glassey, the dogs.

TERRACE

Miss M. McLeod R.N., lady superintendent of Wrinch Memorial Hospital, Hazelton, arrived in Terrace on Monday to spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. Nigel Sherwood but a few hours later received a telegram that her father had passed away at Kelowna. Miss McLeod left the same evening for her home.

Theo Bowen-Colthurst arrived on Wednesday with his bride. They plan to spend their wedding holiday at their summer home at Lakelse Lake. Mr Bowen-Colthurst is known to many Terrace people, having lived here as a child with his parents, Captain and Mrs. J. B. Colthurst. Mrs. Colthurst, before her marriage, was Miss M. Pease R.N., and was attached to the B.C. Department of Health. She travelled with the tuberculosis clinic and is well known in the province. They expect to stay here about a month.

Mrs. Nigel Sherwood visited Prince Rupert on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Little are staying in Terrace for a week having arrived from Kwinitsa.

ASIATIC IMPORT

The soybean is an Asiatic

He wants a new car. She dreams of real Nylon stockings.

Hundreds of thousands of other Canadians want new radios, new refrigerators, new washing machines, new toasters . . . countless other things they have done without, but intend to buy, when the war is over.

That means busy factories, working to meet the pent up demand of people with money to spend on every conceivable kind of article from homes to meat grinders.

It means JOBS.

Of course there will be post-war "problems". But there will be opportunities too, plenty of them—and scope for individual brains and initiative. Canada will be a busy place when Victory is won.

What is PRIVATE ENTERPRISE?

It is the natural desire to make your own way, as far as your ability will take you; an instinct that has brought to this continent the highest standard of life enjoyed by any people on earth. It is the spirit of democracy on the march . . .
