last nine months of his threeand-a-half years in service were spent in the hospital. He was invalided out in April.

McLean believes Americans take their golf more seriously than the British, trying harder to improve their game. Golf being his life, he thoroughly agrees wit that attitude.

Jack. now 33, has been playing golf since he was a child.

"I started," he declared, "by knocking the heads off my father's garden flowers with his walking stick."
