LAUREL-HARDY COMEDY HERE
Laurel and Hardy Coming to Capitol Theatre This Mid-Week in "Jitterbugs".
"Jitterbugs," coming to the Capitol Theatre here this Wednesday showing only Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy as the principals, is hailed as a mirthful riot. The popular comedy pair are cast as way-faring maesters of jive who, as the picture opens, are found in the middle of the desert where they are taken in by a fast talking slicker who gets them to go into partnership with him. When they are exposed at a carnival they manage to get out of town with whole skins only to find themselves mixed up in a land swindle. In New Orleans they go in search of the swindlers and get jobs aboard a show boat, beating out their own special brand of music. Before they can catch up with the swindlers the law catches up with them and an hilarious climax finds the comedians piloting the showboat heading down the river.
Heading the supporting cast of "Jitterbugs" is lovely blonde Vivian Blaine who sings such popular songs as "The Moon Kissed the Mississippi," "If the Shoe Fits You, Wear It," and "I've Gotta Sea for Myself."

AUXILIARY HAS BEEN DISBANDED
Little Group of Women Did Excellent Work For Navy Boys Since Beginning of War.
The original local Women's Naval Auxiliary, a comparatively small group of hard and faithful workers, which has functioned since early in the far to provide comfort for men and boys of the naval services locally and abroad, had a final disbandment meeting last night at the home of Mrs. A. The group has carried out such useful work as looking after sick boys, purchasing a radio for the sick bay at H.M. C.S. Chatham and sending no less than 101 Christmas parcels to local naval boys.
