Coast Regiment W.A. Has Dance

In support of their main endeavours, sending regular gifts of cigarettes to 65 local boys who are on active service overseas on the various battle fronts —in Italy, France and in bombed Britain—the Women's Auxiliary of a Coast Regiment held a very successful dance in the Army on Saturday night.

Under general direction of Mrs. William Brass, president, the affair was ably convened by Mrs. E. Clarke, with members of the Regiment presiding at the door. Sgt. Major Watson proved an energetic master of ceremonies and those present danced to the strains of the Area Orchestra.

In charge of refreshments was Mrs. R. Woods, who also conducted the drawing for a brass tray, donated by Jones' Novelty Store and won by Doc. Cameron of the Royal Hotel with ticket No. 163, and a leg of lamb, donated by Sunrise Grocery and won by Mrs. Stan Goddard of the Vernon Apartments with ticket No. 997.

Merchants and others assisted in making this affair a financial success, thus enabling the auxiliary to continue their work of supplying cigarettes to local fighting men.

St. Andrew's Sunday School Holds Picnic

The Anglican mission boat Northern Cross ferried 35 children and their supervisors over to Digby Island on Thursday afternoon to enjoy the annual picnic of St. Andrew's Cathedral Sunday School.

Loading its precious cargo at the Yacht Club floats, the boat discharged at Digby an occupation force which soon won a sizeable beachhead from the forces of solitude and made the place alive with general picnic din.

Like any enterprising group of commandos the picnickers took their living from the country, which surprisingly yielded an abundance of ice cream, hot dogs, sandwiches, and other exotic foodstuffs.

Ball games and other organized activities were enjoyed during the afternoon.

Frank Skinner, Sunday School superintendent, was in charge of the outing.

F. J. Dishman Buried Sunday

Well attended by his former comrades in the Canadian Legion and other friends and associates, the funeral of Frederick John Dishman took place at 2:30 Sunday afternoon from the chapel of the B.C. Undertakers on Second Street. Captain F. H. Joplin, area army padre, officiated.

The deceased was a veteran of the 221st Battalion, First World War and the funeral was under the direction of the Canadian Legion. During the service the congregation sang the hymn
"Lead Kindly Light." A. J. Lancaster was organist.

Committal was made in the veterans' plot of Fairview Cemetery. Bugler W. J. Rance sounded the last post.

Pallbearers were J. Taylor, Ben Johnson, M. Rowe, Leslie Parks, George Holmes and John Feness.
