Former Smithers Doctor Returns to Canada From Italy

SMITHERS, Aug. 30-Dr. Ferguson, formerly of Smithers, who has been overseas since the early part of the war and who had charge of military hospitals in Sicily and Italy during the Italian campaign, has arrived back Canada, according to word reaching here.

Dr. Ferguson took over the practice of the late Dr. Agnew. service at the Legion and later disposed of it to Dr. wearing shoes a size larger than M. Greene. He had begun they wore before the war. More practice in Moose Jaw, Sask., walking is the reason. the war broke out. He unteered for service, and was
