WOMEN'S PART IN VICTORY

Women of the United Nations played a far greater role in the Second Great War than in any other war—and played it in far greater numbers. For the first time in modern history, women of some countries fought side by side with men in organized groups.

But perhaps the greatest service women rendered in the war was behind the lines. Millions of women in Britain, Canada and the United States worked on assembly lines to produce the planes, tanks, guns and ammunition which made it possible to win the war.

Hundreds of thousands of others planted and harvested crops. Women who could not leave their homes contributed to the war effort by rolling bandages, saving tin and fat and conserving food.

And deep in occupied Europe women worked in a vast underground movement to undermine the Nazi war machine and help keep national spirit alive.

J. Monaghan, of Springfield, Ill., editor of Illinois State Historical publications, is a visitor in the city, having arrived on Wednesday night's train. Mr. Monaghan, who is on vacation, leaves tonight for the Queen Charlotte Islands.

Do as Mother and Grandmother did. They knew a swish or two of blue in the last rinse was the way to keep all white clothes snowy white. You may wash them clean but it's the rinse in Blue that prevents them turning yellow. Just a swish or two in the last rinse water does the trick.

Seven colours combine to make white. One of these colours is blue. There is no true white without Blue.

Home Miracle

All we wanted was the smartest, gayest, most cheerful living room in the world!
What we had was one of the dullest, most uninspired and drab rooms on Elmhurst Drive!
But the budget! . . .

"At least, we can do something about those draperies," I told Jim. And I ran up some gay, modern-looking material I'd picked up at a bargain. While I was about it, I did a job on new slip-covers, too.

In the meantime, Jim fixed up some smart, oversized frames for our prints, and did a re-painting job on the walls. Then a Venetian blind to cover both windows. "Hey! It begins to look like something around here!" he said, one day.

"There's just one thing wrong," I said, ". . . the floor. And I know how I can fix that up. Without a lot of expense, either!" Next day we looked at Gold Seal Congoleum Rugs —and bought a beautiful one in colors that go wonderfully with the rest of our room. And it will wear as well as it looks! For Gold Seal Congoleum has an exclusive wearing layer of heat-toughened paint and baked enamel—equal in thickness to 8 coats of best floor paint applied by hand. Best of all—it makes cleaning loads easier. Honestly, we believe a professional decorator couldn't have done better!
