Occasion at Seamen's Resort Marked by Expressions of Appreciation and Gratification

The American Seamen's Club A. M. Richmond, mine opera- here, child of the United States tor of Telkwa, arrived in the Army Transport and ward of city Wednesday night and the Canadian Salvation Army, left last night on a trip to Van- held its first birthday yesterday and many friends turned out for the "At Home" in the club's commodious and comfortable twelvemonth of fine service under the able direction of Supervisor A. E. Tutte. There was a concise program of speeches of able musical selections which culminated in the novel presention of the color of th A memory-wracking quiz con- tation of a birthday cake after test was the entertainment which the proceedings came to feature of the weekly luncheon a close with the serving of de-

Supervisor Tutte disclosed that since the club's opening on July 19 of last year, no less than 17,380 men of the sea from all states of the union and from many of the Allied countries had partaken of its facilities. A particular source of gratification to the supervisor was the fact that the institution had been able to make comfortable the visits of men from all parts of the world and thus create a favorable impression for Prince Rupert. There had been trepidation on his part at the outset as to what the success of the club might be but he could look back to the first year with what he believed was pardonable satisfaction. In any success there had been, the ladies of the Navy League had played a prominent part. Mayor H. M. Daggett added his voice to the appreciation of a fine service well rendered and paid particular 'ribute to the splendid management of Supervisor Tutte. Mrs. J. R. Elfert, president of the Women's Auxiliary of the Navy League of Canada, said that the ladies had greatly enjoyed the privilege of being able to assist in a work that was filling such a great need.

Col. J. H. Mellom, officer commanding, Prince Rupert sub-port of embrakation, expressed particular appreciation of the war service of the Salvation Army as exemplified in the Seamen's Club. It was well that there should be this ministering to the needs and comforts of BERT'S TRANSFER and the merchant seamen without whose brave and daring service in the face of the greatest of danger and hardship modern wars could not be won. "They are deserving of the utmost that can be done for them" declared Col. Mellom.

Russian Captain Voices Thanks

A brief speaker of particular interest was Capt. Krems of the Russian ship Scala who neatly expressed appreciation of himself and his men for hospitality ANNETTE'S extended them during their stay in Prince Rupert. A good word for this city and its people, would, indeed, be passed along when they got home.

The musical program included vocal solos "The House of Hospitality" and "All Through the Night," by Mrs. F. Pilgrim; vocal duet "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," by Mrs. Pilgrim and Mrs. Percy, and a vocal solo "Ol" Man River" by Bob Herrick of the U.S.O. The proceedings opened with "The Star Spangled | Banner and closed with "O Canada." Andy McNaughton was accompanist for the afternoon. Prelude to the serving of the refreshments by the Navy League Women's Auxiliary was the wheeling into the reception room by pretty little Shirley Bruton of a tea wagon containing a birthday cake which was cut by Col. Mellom and Mrs. El-

The special proceedings of the day continued into the evening when there was a moving picture show with birthday refreshments again being served.

In honor of their carnival queen candidate, Ruth Giske, Women of the Moose held a delightful dance last night. The charming Miss Giske entered the hall accompanied by the senior regent, Mrs. Harvey, with Mesdames Morrison, Munro, Mc-Quade and Scherk. The evening was then given over to a happy period of dancing with music by the area orchestra. A delicious luncheon was served by the chairman, Mrs. Murray, and her committee.

The dance followed the regular meeting of Prince Rupert Chapter No. 211. Winner of an accumulated cash draw of $9 was Mrs. Sophie Giske.
