BOY SCOUTS OFFICERS ARE ELECTED; BUILDING IMPROVEMENTS GOING ON

On Monday night the Boy Scouts held a meeting at which Rev. R. Hills was elected Scoutmaster and Allan Dubeau, Assistant Scoutmaster. Ronald Paulsen is leader of Cougar Patrol and Charles de Kergommeauz, second. Jimmy Glen, leader of Owl Patrol, Francis Gavan, second. Charlie McKie, leader of Wolf Patrol, and Charlie Grego, second. There is a new and large assortment of games at the Scout Hall for the boys and sometime towards the end of this month they are going to have a Hallowe'en party.

The Terrace Bakery is to open a delicatessan within a few days. A warehouse is also being added to the building. David Jordan is now busy making the needed renovations.

Lieutenant Raymond Jordan, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Jordan, is now on occupation duty in Germany. He saw action with the heavy anti-aircraft and was wounded in Holland.

All that is needed to completely finish the Terrace Machine Shop and Garage is a coat of paint. It is a fine garage as can be found anywhere and adds to the appearance of the town.

Material is now on hand for completing the Dine and Dance restaurant to be added to the Skeena Coffee Bar. Renovations will make the place very attractive and fully modern. Work on it will be started by David Jordan as soon as he is through at the Terrace Bakery.

Week-end visitors from Prince Rupert to Terrace included the following: J. S. Black, W. H. Brett, Mr. Hias, D. Allen, Corporal and Mrs. A. G. Anderson, W. K. K. Kennedy.

Among Vancouver week-end visitors were the following: A. L. Williams, H. B. McKelvie, J. W. Robinson, H. B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Creney.

BOB MUNRO IS ROTARY SPEAKER

An outline of the work done by the Soldiers' and Airmen's Christian Association across Canada during the war was given to members of the Prince Rupert Rotary Club Thursday when they were addressed by Rev. Bob Munro, Dominion supervisor.

"Our aim has been to promote Christian fellowship among young men entering the armed services," he said. "Young men pitched into army barracks often need guidance and throughout the war we have maintained 34 centres in camps in Canada."

Proof of the value of the work of the Soldiers' and Airmen's Christian Association has been extended to him and other workers many times by men who have been helped to find the right way, Mr. Munro said. A Baptist minister, he started his work among military personnel in Halifax early in the war.

The Soldiers' and Airmen's Christian Association, a non-denominational organization which does not solicit funds, had its origin as the Soldiers' Christian Readers' Association in England in 1838, Mr. Munro said.

An old sailor himself, Mr. Munro said that he knew from his own experience the problems which young men encounter on entering military life. He was with the British sailors who spearheaded the British landing at Zeebrugge in 1918.

"We were commandoes and didn't know it," said the stout, energetic speaker.

Rev. Mr.. Munro is nearing the end of an evangelical speaking tour of Canada, and will begin at Seattle next week on a tour of the United States.

President James Thompson was chairman of the meeting. James Hutchison was introduced as a new member of the club.

HOSPITAL SHIP DUE NEXT WEEK

MONTREAL, Oct. 5—More than 450 wounded and sick Canadian soldiers will return to Canada on October 10, M. E. Doke, general passenger agent, Canadian National Railways, said here today. They will arrive on the hospital ship Lady Nelson, former flagship of the Canadian National Steamships West Indies fleet, the only ship now in this service on the Atlantic. The hospital ship Letitia is now serving in the Pacific to bring home the Japanese-held Canadian prisoners of war.

Although not able to return with their own regiments or units, special arrangements are being made across the country to welcome the invalided soldiers home. The largest number is for Toronto while 54 will go to Calgary, 47 to Montreal, 41 each to Winnipeg and Vancouver, 35 to Regina, 30 to London, 24 to Saint John, 21 to Ottawa, 12 to Quebec and nine to Kingston.

Two Canadian National Railways special hospital trains will be at dockside at Halifax for the arrival of the mercy ship. They will be made up of 12 "hospital on wheel" cars similar to the one which was on exhibit across the country and viewed by 325,000 people. Eight sleepers, four diners and two baggage cars will complete the equipment needed to transport the military patients to their homes in all sections of the Dominion. The entire trip from overseas to their homes will be handled by the Canadian National system.

Orders Sent to Jap Government

TOKYO, Oct. 5 (AP)—Col. Ken Dkye, chief of civil information and education in Japan for the Allied command, said yesterday that letters ordering the release of all political prisoners and abolition of laws affecting civil liberties had been mailed to the Japanese government. The letters also ask for removal from office of the Japanese minister of home affairs.

MONTREAL DUE FOR BIG BOOM

New Building Projects Promise To Transform Canada's Greatest Metropolis

Montreal is flourishing and Canada's most populous metropolis is due for a building boom of unprecedented proportions as soon as there is a loosening up of men and materials, says Louis Turgeon, who returned home this week after spending several weeks there in the course of which he underwent a major operation as a result of which his health and appearance are both visibly improved.

The Ford Hotel interests are about to put up a new hostelry of 1,000 rooms which will be the city's most palatial public stopping-place. Another big project is a million-dollar Roman Catholic sisters hospital. Thousands of new homes are planned as well as numberous buildings.

"In fact, there is reason to expect that, as a sequel to the war, the city will undergo a veritable transformation," says Mr. Turgeon.
