MANY ATTEND CELEBRATION AT KITWANGA

KITWANGA, June 4.—Kitwanga held the biggest celebration in its history on Victoria Day when 600 people from the Skeena and Naas river villages congregated for the annual two days of sport and celebration. Guests of honor were visitors from the Naas river village of Canyon City, in whose honor a banquet was given.

Among the outstanding visitors was Chief Mark G. McKay, of Kitselas. So crowded was the village with guests that there was no room to accommodate the Hazelton Maple Leaf softball team which took the housing shortage in a sportsmanlike manner and pitched tents along Kitwanga creek. The creek is now known as "Maple Leaf Creek."

A banquet was held in honor of the visitors at which many speeches of welcome were made and responded to. Harold Sinclair, president of the Kitwanga branch, Native Brotherhood of B. C., was master of ceremonies.

The Canyon City visitors included the Canyon City orchestra, which supplied the music for the dances held each night of the celebration.

Bright sunshine and warm weather helped largely to make the sports days successful. Following are the winners of the events:
