PRETTY WEDDING IS SOLEMNIZED

Event Saturday Night of Interest Both in City and Interior

A wedding of much interest locally and in the interior took place Saturday afternoon when Dorothy Huskisson, youngest daughter of Mrs. Edith Thompson of Cedarvale, became the bride of J. A. Kenneth Reid of Harcourt, N. B. The wedding ceremony in the United Church manse was solemnized by Rev. R. A. Wilson.

The bride, gowned in silver trimmed embroidered white sheer with lace collar confining her lengthy veil and carrying a shower bouquet of roses, was attended by Miss Margaret Smith in a gown of dawn pink with matching veil caught with baby roses. Her bouquet was of matching carnations.

E. J. Haapala was groomsmen. The reception following took place at Mrs. Kate Smith's tea room which was daintily decorated for the occasion. Fifty invited guests gathered for the occasion and were received by Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Haapala, sister of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid later left by train enroute to St. John with Montreal and Niagara Falls being honeymoon stopovers. Mrs. Reid formerly taught school at Endako and Woodcock and until her marriage was with the Royal Bank staff here.
