LIM JACK, WELL KNOWN RAILWAY FIGURE HERE, RETIRES THIS YEAR

After more than forty years of railroading, Lim Jack, who has been cook and steward on the car of the divisional superintendent out of Prince Rupert for over a quarter of a century and, as such, has become a very familiar figure all the way from Prince Rupert to Jasper, will retire this June from the active service of the Canadian National Railways on attaining the age of sixty-five years.

RETIRING—Lim Jack, cook and steward for Canadian National superintendent here.

Born at Toysun in Canton Province, China, "Lim," as he is familiarly known, came to Canada in 1900 and had a small tailor shop on Carroll Street in Vancouver for a couple of years. In 1903 he took up cooking first for a family and then for a hotel. His railroad career started in 1904 when he went to work on the car of the superintendent of the Canadian Pacific Railway between Fort William and Winnipeg. Two years later he made a trip home to China, returning in 1907, when he became cook on the car of the Grand Trunk Pacific superintendent from Port Arthur.

When a train overturned on a new piece of track out of Port Arthur and Lim made his escape from his burning car with clothes afire he resolved to quit railroading and proceeded to Toronto. However, the call of the rails was in his blood and in 1909 he was back in Vancouver to take up employment with the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Leaving the C.P.R., Lim joined the Grand Trunk Pacific at Winnipeg in 1910, being assigned to the superintendent's car at Edmonton. After eight years there he came to Prince Rupert in 1918 and has since been the superindent's cook and steward here, serving successfully under Harry McCall, A. C. Kilpatrick, N. B. Walton, I. A. McPherson, W. H. Tobey, James Clark, G. A. Glay and C. A. Berner.

Lim recalls having cooked for such distinguished personages as Sir Clarles M. Hays, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and W. H. Taft.

He has a wife and son and daughter in China but, owing to the war, it is a long time since he has heard from them.

It is Lim's ultimate hope to go to China to spend his declining years but that will not be until after the war is over and meantime, he is quite content to remain in Prince Rupert with his friends.

Better English

By D. C. WILLIAMS

1. What is wrong with this sentence? "I wish to state that we shall be there."
2. What is the correct pronunciation of "incomparable?"
3. Which one of these words is misspelled? Obituary, obleck, oblivious.
4. What does the word "lamentable" mean?
5. What is a word beginning with nu that means "to make void, especially legally?"

Answers

1. "I wish to say that we shall be there" is better. 2. Accent second syllable, not the third as often heard. 3. Oblique. 4. Pitiable, deplorable. "It was a lamentable misfortune." 5. Nullify.

PROCLAMATION!

(Issued under the authority of the Emergency Shelter Regulations, Order-in-Council, P.C. 9439, December 19, 1944)

WARNING

TO ALL PERSONS PLANNING TO MOVE TO

Victoria · Vancouver · New Westminster

Hamilton · Toronto · Ottawa · Hull

As part of a plan to meet congested conditions, all persons who propose to rent or occupy family quarters in any of these Emergency Shelter Areas are required by Board order first to obtain a permit from the Administrator of Emergency Shelter for the district.

The purpose of the order is to help those who must be in these areas to obtain necessary accommodation.

Before completing arrangements to move to any of these districts, write to the Administrator for full particulars of the Emergency Shelter Regulations as they apply to that district.

THIS IS THE LAW No person may move to and rent or occupy family quarters in any of these districts without an Administrator's permit (Form E.S. 1).

Every person who rents or occupies family quarters in any of these districts contrary to the order, commits an offence and, in addition to other penalties, will be required by the Administrator to vacate the shelter and the district at his own expense.

The Emergency Shelter Regulations provide serious penalties for hindering or obstructing these efforts and for any contravention of the regulations or of an order of the Board or of the Administrators.
