NEW YORK, August 23 (P)-The so-called duration heavyweight champ, Jimmy Bivins of Cleveland, did not disappoint his backers last night as he beat Archie Moore of California. The up-and-coming Mr. Moore had won 27 straight ring contests up to last night when his string was broken in the sixth round by Bivin's savage onslaught. Actually, the husky Cleveland heavy knocked out the California hopeful twice-once in the second and finally in the sixth frame. The second - stanza knockout was not-counted because Bivins was judged to have fouled Moore.

HAZELTON, Aug. 23-Wedged on two sides by the rapid and treacherous Bulkley and Skeena rivers which join within a few hundreds yards of the town's centre, Hazelton citizens soon have a safe swimming pool, the result of community effort. It won't be an elaborate pool with tile surfacing but it will have a continuous flow of pure water and its natural sloping bottom will give it a depth of water ranging from a few inches to nine feet, making it safe for 1,200 cubic yards of earth and everyone from small children to rock. When the inside face expert swimmers.
