NAZIS IMPOSED IMPOSSIBLE BERT'S TRANSFER and CONDITIONS

Further word of the almost impossible economic conditions which existed in Norway under German rule has been received by Gunnar Selvig from a younger NEW LOCATION: Green 821 brother who plans immigrating here next spring. Such prices as $25 per pound for butter and $3 per pound for the cheapest meat are quoted. So, if the generously EXPERT PERMANENT WAVING Germans did not cut off supplies altogether from the luckiest Norwegians, they made it impossible to buy owing to the exorbitant prices.
