Prince Rupert, B.C. RAY SMITH TO TRAIN BOXERS

Offers Services in Connection With Tournament

A well known fighter of Acropolis Hill, Corporal Ray Smith, has offered to train any of the local entrants in the Northwest Service Command boxing tournament to be held here on 5, 6 and 7

Ray Smith originally came from San Francisco where he established a good record in California fight circles. Since his arrival in Prince Rupert, he fought Billy McCann of Ketchikan to a standstill for the Alaska welterweight crown last September and successfully defended his new title in a return match in October. Recently, Ray accompanied two lads of the Prince Rupert Athletic Club, Jordan Smith and Bobby Anderson, to Vancouver, CPL.
