Shrewsbury Hospital races in Britain suffered during the recent gale, when a fierce rain squall blew down a portion of the committee tent. Police and civilians held it up long enough for the committee to salvage their papers and money before the canvas collapsed. Race cards, tickets and papers blew all over the course and the weighing in scales were smashed. Only four of the eight horses in the last race seemed able to move against the wind and the judges declared the contest invalid and ordered bookmakers to return all

Guides and Brownies Are Flourishing in Prince Rupert.

Very encouraging reports on Girl Guide work in Prince Rupert were presented at the quarterly meeting of the Prince Rupert Girl Guide Association which met at the nome of Mrs Arnold Flaten, president of the association.

Well over 100 girls are enjoying the benefits of belonging to the Guides and Brownies. At present there are three large Brownie packs under the leadership of Mrs. Boyd at the Cathedral Hall, Mrs. Gorrie at the Sal-Atchison at the Conrad Street at the Cathedral Hail under the local informational quiz contests leadership of Miss Honora Sil- and a new garden and horticulversides. He advised the council that the yacht club had accommodation available to receive visiting yachts up to 100 feet in length. . In view of this, the council decided to take steps to publicize these facilities and services. The possibility of reviving the international yacht race from Puget Sound to Prince Rupert will also be explored.
