Scalpers Plague London Theatres

LONDON, Jan. 17 (P)-A theatrical boom that included the Christmas pantomime season meeting of St. Andrew's Anglican brought "Full House" notices to theatres and "theatre jackals' Cathedral on Menday evening, Very Rev. Dean J. B. Gibson pre! to public attention.

It's the old game of ticket scalpers who buy up handfuls of tickets at booking offices and sell them to the public—at a high profit-from the curbside outside the theatre. Troops on short leave and anxious to sample West End stage attractions have been among the victims.

"I used to think I was just naturally nervous and tense. But I found out that it was the caffein in tea and coffee that kept me from relaxing."

People like that should try Postum. It's one grand drink-rich-flavored, hearty, with an appeal that's all its own.

What's more, you can drink Postum and relax like a kitten! Postum contains no caffein, nor any other drug to key up nerves or affect heart or digestion.

Postum is made instantly in the cup, just by adding boiling water or hot milk. Try it!
