RAW COURAGE ABOARD A CARRIER—Death took an enforced holiday when this incident occurred aboard the U.S.S. Enterprise. Coming in for a landing, Ensign Byron Johnson, of Potter, Neb., was given a waveoff, but the tail hook of his Grumman Hellcat caught a wire, crashing and bursting into flame on the edge of the catwalk. To the burning plane dashes Lieut. Walter L. Chewning, Jr., of Philadelphia, Pa., who dragged the pilot from the cockpit of his flaming ship, as shown in top photo, snapped by a navy photographer as Lieut. Chewning clambered into the flaming Hellcat. Below, firefighters and flight deck crewmen work on the burning plane as he surther into the catwalk. Chewning was awarded the Navy and Marine Corps medal for his heroism.

TERRACE HAS FINE CONCERT

TERRACE, Feb. 12 — At the Oddfellows' Hall Friday a bright and happy entertainment was put on by the Junior Women's Auxiliary of the Anglican Church under the direction of Miss Hills, sister of the rector incumbent.
The hall was filled to capacity and the long and varied program was well sustained by the excellent performances of the young people and of those not so young who added considerably to the entertaining bill of fare.

There was a flower drill done by a troupe of young girls, a pretty pageant mimicking the play of butterflies and birds in a garden of flowers.

Three short plays were highly amusing and some fine songs by local talent supplied by Mrs. de Kergommeaux, Mr. Barr and Capt. Davidson were very acceptable.

Jean Kirkaldy did the Highland Fling and Roberta Lambley a tap dance; Helen Presby sang prettily and Alec Houlden played well on the accordion.

Last but not least, John Hepburn, one of the not so youngs, gave comic recitations in that Scott's dialect which comes to him by second nature.

The object of the affair was to start a fund for a memorial window in the church in honor of focal young people who have passed away.

Those taking part in the program were:

Play—Joyce Cote, Helen Pres-by, Margaret Hunter and Lois Titcomb.

Recitation—Kenneth Humble.
Vocal solo—Mrs. de Kergommeaux.

Accordian solo—Helen Somerville.

Piano selections—Mrs. R. Hubble.

Vocal solo—Helen Prestay.
Military Tap Dance—Roberta Lambly.

Violin solo—Oran Hailand.
Play—Helen Prestay, Marguerite Parquette, Mrs. R. H. Trumper, Pearl Secora, June Secora, Irene Cote.

Accordian solo—Alex Houlden.
Vocal selection—Capt. Davidson, accompanied by Miss Agnes Davidson.

Recitation—John Hepburn.
Recitation—Helen Prestay.

Play—Roberta Lambly, Kay Williscroft, Patsy Poole, Shirley Hayhurst, Sarah Miles, Margaret Miles and Bernice Matthews.

Vocal selections—Mr. Barr.
Violin solo—Helen Somerville.
Highland Fling — Jean Kirkaldy.

Dance of the Flowers—Helen Prestay, Islay McMillan, June Se-cora, Patsy Poole, Helen McKie, Shirley Hayhurst, Roberta Lam-bly, Kay Williscroft, Joyce Cote, Pearl Secora, Margaret Miles,

Smithers Man Has Painful Accident

SMITHERS, Feb. 12— Oswald Hoskins, proprietor of Hoskins garage, suffered a painful accident here Friday when, working on top of a truck, he fell off, hitting his back across a gasoline barrel that was standing on end on the ground. He was rushed to hospital and given immediate attention and is now resting as comfortably as can be expected.
The injury may not be as serious as was at first believed.

SUDDEN DEATH OF
SMITHERS WOMAN

SMITHERS, Feb. 12 — The death of Mrs. John Barker of Smithers occurred very suddenly at her home in Smithers on Friday evening.

Mrs. Barker suffered a broken ankle about a month ago when she slipped and fell on her door step. She had been home from hospital for some time and was progressing favorably until Friday evening when she became suddenly ill and died in a few minutes.

Deceased leaves beside her husband at Smithers, three daughters and one son, John Barker Jr., in the Air Force at Vancouver.

The family will have the sympathy of the community in their sudden bereavement.

Repairs Will Take
Several Weeks

Extensive repair work which will take several weeks to complete is to be done to the Russian vessel Ussuri which recently arrived here to go into dry dock. The 1,447-ton ship is under command of Captain Fillipovich. She arrived here under pilot from the south.

Port Clements Boy
Weds In Saskatoon

A wedding of interest was solemnized recently at Trinity Lutheran Church in Saskatoon when Hildegard Marie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.
Brandmayr sr. of Saskatoon, became the bride of Sergeant Henry Ernest Mayer, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Mayer of Port Clements, Queen Charlotte Islands.
The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Wagner and Mr. and Mrs.
J. Brandmayr jr. attended the couple. The twin brother of the groom, Pilot Officer George H.
(Robin) Mayer, is at present in Great Britain with the Royal Canadian Air Force.

CANADIANS
LIKE DRINK

About 95 percent of Canadians drink a beverage with each of their three meals. Between meals more people have something to drink in the late evening before retiring (46 percent) than in mid-afternoon (30 percent) or in mid-morning (21 percent) or in the early morning (7 percent).
The following table shows just what Canadians drink during the course of the day:

	Pct.	Pct.	Pct.
Before Breakfast	2.7	2.1	1.0
At Breakfast	34.8	52.7	5.6
Mid-morning	4.3	6.7	5.3
Noon Meal	64.8	11.5	16.6
Mid-afternoon	11.0	3.6	6.0
Evening Meal	67.7	15.0	12.5
