Contestants for the Northern B.C. title may be sponsored by any organization, business firm, newspaper or radio station in the franchise area. They must be Canadian citizens and legal residents of the district, single (never having been married) and between the ages of 18 and 28. They should possess talent the ability to sing, dance, play musical instruments or entertain in some similar way— and, of course, beauty of face and figure, irrespective of height or weight.

While "Miss Northern B.C." may not achieve the ultimate title of "Miss America," there is no reason why she should not. There is no dearth of beauty and talent in this part of the country and this contest provides a grand opportunity for FOR SALE-Small house, partly those possessing the required qualifications.
