Enthusiasm at "Y," Conrad Street and Seal Cove

Weanesday evening was a busy one on the Prince Rupert recreauonal front.

At the Y.M.C.A. the six to 12 year old boys turned out in great numbers and with undiminished enthusiasm. The youngsters were eagerly on the floor before the scheduled time. After being brought to order, the class was TO SAW better lumber more started off with marching exercises, followed by boys' fundamental gymnastics. After this the time was spent in relay races. By way of variety, tumbling and Mr. Archibaid then described obstacle races were introduced. As in last week's session, rivalry ran high.

At Conrad Street School the opening session of the centre was attended by 18 boys of from six to 12 years of age. Marching exercises and fundamental gym. nastics were engaged in and, following this, the class divided into three groups for mat tumbling. Instructor Ted Parkhouse and his assistants, Bill Collins and Don Wilson, reported that several of the boys showed exceptional ability in mat tumbling and should form the basis of a
