WHAT A NITE

"Are you positive Private Blank was drunk?" asked the commanding officer."Well," replied the M.P., "I saw him put a penny in the fire alarm box, then look at the clock on the post office and shout, "My God, I've lost 14 pounds."HILARIOUS FUN FILMAbbott and Costello are "Lost in a Harem"Abbott and Costello get "Lost in a Harem" in a small kingdom in the mystic East in the weekend picture at the Capitol Theatre. Beautiful Marilyn Maxwell, screen newcomer John Conte of radio fame and Jimmy Dorsey and his orchestra enhance the fun in the musical comedy.The comedians play a couple of prop men who, along with the rest of a touring musical show, get stranded in a small town in the mystic East. Marilyn, as the show's prima donna, gets a singing job in a local cafe and Abbott and Costello convince the manager they are a leading comedy team. They get the job, but their act is so bad that it starts a fight and all of the performers are tossed into jail.They get out with the help of Conte, a supposed desert sheik, upon promising that they will help him regain his throne in a small nearby kingdom which has been usurped by Douglas Dumbrille, Conte's evil uncle. The situations go from hilarious to more and more hilarious as Abbott and Costello, as part of their plan, pose as Hollywood talent scouts to gain the aid of Dumbrille's chief wife, who has screen aspirations.
