RED CROSS STILL TAKING CARE OF WAR PRISONERS

Although no individually addressed parcels may be sent to prisoners-of-war in Germany owing to the uncertain location of camps, the Red Cross food parcels are still going forward and are being distributed by 50 trucks donated by the Canadian government to the International Red Cross, the Prince Rupert Red Cross executive has been advised. The local Red Cross has received considerable correspondence regarding the changed situation of prisoners - of - war, and the next-of-kin are assur ed that everything possible is being done for the prisoners' welfare.

At an executive meeting Tuesday night, director of the Red A coroner's jury investigating | Cross drive revealed that $21,731 had been received through contributions, and that the drive was very successful.
