Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Bamford have received word that their elder son, Capt. Alfred Bamford, Royal Canadian Engineers, has arrived at New York on the Queen Elizabeth and will come to Prince Rupert to spend Christmas with his parents. Overseas for three years, Capt. Bamford was employed with the provincial forestry department at Victoria before enlisting.

Xmas Greetings Via Daily News: Reserve at Once!

A large number of Prince Rupert business and professional people have already made arrangements to convey their Christmas and New Year greetings to their customers and friends through the columns of the Daily News. We have a good many interesting ideas for seasonal greetings at the office and would suggest that those who wish to be represented should immediately call at the office or telephone 98 or 86. In order to avoid last-minute confusion and rush we are arranging these greetings and messages well in advance. A member of the staff will be glad to assist you.

CAMBRAI MAKES CHRISTMAS PLANS

Christmas activity planning featured the regular monthly meeting of Cambrai Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, which was held on Tuesday at the home of Miss Eileen Gibson. The regent, Mrs. J. Munthe, presided with 24 members present.

It was reported that 30 service bags for women members of the armed forces and ten nursery bags for infants have been sent overseas.

The following donations were ordered: $25 to the Conrad Street School; $20 to the endowment fund; $3 to the Susie Sorabji memorial fund for Empire work in India; $1 for the renewal of membership in the Canadian Cancer Society, and $5 to each of the following funds: Polish Relief Fund, British Clothing Fund, Blanket Fund and Sailors' and Minesweepers' Fund.

Plans were completed for the filling of Christmas hampers to be donated to needy families.

The regular monthly raffle of war savings stamps was won by Mrs. E. Lindseth.

Three new members were welcomed to the chapter—Mrs. G. Fraser, Mrs. V. Grant and Mrs. H. G. Esselmont.

The next meeting will be held on January 8 at the home of Mrs. J. Munthe.

Former Resident Dies In South

Reginald Hobson, a former Prince Rupert resident who was an active T.O.C. member and Imperial Army veteran of the first World War, passed away near Vancouver recently, according to information received by E. A. Evans of this city. Mr. Hobson left Prince Rupert nine years ago. Widely known among veterans in the city, the late Mr. Hobson came to Canada at the end of the war and lived in Prince Rupert for about six years. He was a competent engineer and an ardent horseman. During his war service he had the distinction of using his skill to put into operation the pumps which supplied Jerusalem with water when the British Army took over that city from the Turks in 1917.

JOHN VELICH IS BURIED WEDNES.

Requiem mass for the repose of John Velich, who passed away last week, was held at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon at the Church of the Annunciation. Father W. F. Lantagne was celebrant.

Interment took place at Fairview cemetery. Pallbearers were Steve Rapich, Steve Comadina, Samuel Bill and Louis Postuk.

Deceased, who came from Yugo-Slavia, was 64 years of age. He was believed to have had no relatives in Canada. He was a blacksmith and came here in 1909. Of recent years he had been a resident in the Eventide Home.

There were flowers from Friends at Eventide Home, Mr. and Mrs. Jurovich, Mike Lubotina, Mr. and Mrs. John Gurvich, L. Postuk and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bill and family, Mrs. Vuckovich and family and Mr. and Mrs. Comadina.

Many of Canada's most outstanding public figures gained their appreciation and understanding of public affairs in newspaper offices. William Lyon Mackenzie King, Joseph Howe, Sir Frances Hincks, Jean Baptiste Dorion, and George Brown were newspapermen.

"Who ever knew truth to be put to the worse in a free and open encounter?" asked John Milton in his famous defence of freedom of the press.

WEEKLY RATION FASHION for a twosome

SUN.	MON.	TUES.	WED.	THUR.	FRI.	SAT.
Roast Shoulder of Lamb	Cold Roast Lamb	Egg & Noodle Casserole	Lamb Pie	Meat Patties	Fish	Boiled Tongue with Cranberry Sauce
3 lbs. 2 coupons				1/2 lb. 2 tokens

Taking for granted that last week's ration budgeting left you with a credit of two tokens, this week's first dinner might well feature a small roast. Parting with two coupons in one fell swoop is not ration rashness when you get in return three pounds rolled shoulder of lamb. It should nicely take care of three dinners, inclusive of a guest or two. Good companions for the roast are a savoury dressing and a rich brown gravy. For Monday it can be sliced cold and on Wednesday a lamb and vegetable pie is a tasty remake. Suggested Tuesday fare is an egg and noodle casserole—hard cooked eggs on a bed of noodles topped with a mellow cheese sauce and buttered crumbs, the whole given an oven heat treatment until bubbling and browned. Two-token value for Thursday is half a pound of hamburger for meat patties. Unrationed fish is a foregone conclusion for Friday. Being tokenless on Saturday is no cause for frenzy, for unrationed meats offer a variety of choice. A pickled tongue gently simmered and served hot with a taste-tantalizing and seasonable cranberry sauce can be a happy highlight in the week's eating. And it will also start you on another week by providing a Sunday meal.

MRS. ANNETTE WOODS WEDS

Became Bride of Ross Mansell at Recent Interesting Ceremony in Victoria

Arrival in the city of the groom yesterday was followed by the announcement of a very interesting marriage which took place quietly in Victoria on November 7 when Mrs. Annette Woods, well known and popular local business woman, became the bride of Ross K. Mansell of Victoria, for many years supervisor of sales for Beatty Bros. in British Columbia and more recently identified with the Wartime Prices and Trade Board at Victoria. The announcement is being followed by the showering of congratulations and best wishes on the happy couple. Mr. and Mrs. Mansell are remaining in the city until early in the New Year when they will leave for Victoria where they will make their home.

Mrs. Mansell is widely known in business circles throughout Western Canada. She came to Canada from London, England, in 1911 and was at first in business on the prairies where she at one time operated a chain of stores. She has been in Prince Rupert for twenty-five years, having just recently announced her retirement.
