FUNERAL OF MRS. STALKER

Funeral service for the late Mrs. Edna Stalker, who passed away at Princeton on December 10, was held Saturday afternoon at Grenville Court chapel of B. C. Undertakers here. Rev. R. A. Wilson of First United Church officiated and interment took place in Fairview Cemetery.

Wife of Douglas Stalker, former local fireman and war veteran, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Edgar, pioneer Prince Rupert couple, Mrs. Stalker passed away after an illness of five years. The remains were brought here on Friday for burial, accompanied by Mr. Stalker and a sister of deceased, Mrs. Agnes Comer.

Many friends attended the service and there were floral offerings from Prince Rupert and southern centres. The congregation sang the hymns "Abide With Me" and "What a Friend We Have in Jesus." Organist was Miss Frances Moore.

Pallbearers were R. B. Skinner, Ted Johnson, Robert Augier, W. H. Hill and Arthur Eyolfson.

Those sending flowers were: Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Chellis, North Bend; Gerald Dunkerley, Vancouver; Mrs. H. Smith Sr. and family; Mr. and Mrs. Len Raabe and family; Mr. and Mrs. J. Krikevsky and Mr. and Mrs. George Rorie; Mr. and Mrs. E. Pedersen; The Staff of the Fire Department; Buster Hill and family; Brothers and Sisters; Doug and Barbara; Mrs. J. A. # GIRLS ARE ORGANIZED

Khatada Girls Club Formed With Joan Taylor As President

Former "Y" hostesses here form the enthusiastic nucleus of the newly organized Khatada Club which held its first business meeting last evening in the lounge of the YMCA.

This organization is the result of the inspiration and efforts of Miss Phyllis Wilkes of Vancouver now employed as program supervisor in the YMCA building in Prince Rupert.

Realizing the need for organization among the younger women of this city, Miss Wilkes gathered together a group of the former "Y" hostesses and put the idea before them. Her enthusiasm was quickly taken up by the girls, who are finishing the job which began some five years ago with the arrival in the city of men in uniform and which will not be completely ended until the departure of the last man. They also expressed desire of organizing their energies towards the betterment of the community and their own social activities.

The group has as its honorary President, Mrs. N. E. Arnold, well known city business woman and member of the city council.

Miss Joan Taylor was elected as President for the year 1946 while Miss Betty Payne and Miss Grace Thompson are the club's choice for secretary and treasurer respectively. The membership committee is composed of Miss Lenora Raabe, Miss Betty Haudenschild and Miss Helen Rowe who will receive future applications for membership.

Plans for the coming year are being formulated and all the members are showing keen interest and enthusiasm for the quite ambitious program which is being mapped out. Already in swing is the Christmas wrapping service for servicemen which will continue all this week. The girls are also sponsoring a tea-dance for all servicemen, ex-servicemen, their wives and lady friends, to be held in the "Y" on Christmas Eve.
