Miss Barbara Heays Becomes Bride of Mario Bussanich

A lovely wedding of much interest in Vancouver and Prince Rupert was solemnized recently in St. Michael's Anglican Church in Vancouver, when Barbara Ruth Heays, youngest daughter of Capt. and Mrs. W. S. Heays of Vancouver, became the bride of Mario Anthony, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Bussanich of Burn-

Given in marriage by her father, the bride presented a charming picture gowned in a delicate pink afternoon dress and a chapel veil crowned with rosebuds. Pink roses with streamers comprised her bouquet. Her only jewelry was a small gold cross, a gift of the groom.

Attending the price was Miss Corrine Heays, sister of the bride, who chose a pale blue afternoon dress and a coronet of blue and pink daisies and carried a bouquet of contrasting pastel flowers.
