VICTORIA GIRL MARRIED HERE

Miss Barbara Dawson
Becomes Bride of Warrant
Officer Brown

The altar of First Presbyterian Church was bright with pink, white and gold chrysanthemums last night during a marriage ceremony in which Miss Barbara Dawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Dawson, of Victoria, was united to Warrant Officer Gilbert L. Brown, R.C.N.V.R., also of Victoria. The rite was performed by Rev. A. F. MacSween.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white chiffon with fingertip veil and Queen Ann headdress. She carried a bouquet of red and white roses with streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Es-treen Restall, of Victoria, who wore a gold stain floor-length gown with matching Juliet cap and carried a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums.

Groomsman was Lieut. Frank Pidgeon, R.C.N.V.R. Art Ogilvie and Bill Jarmon were ushers.

During signing of the register Mrs. Yvonne Schaefer, soloist, sang Greig's "I Love Thee." Mrs. E. J. Smith was accompanist.

A navy cutlass was used by the bride to cut the two-tier wedding cake at the reception at Reid's Cafe following the ceremony. More than 100 guests attended the function. The room was decorated with pink and white streamers and wedding bells for the occasion. Toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. A. F. MacSween and was acknowledged by the bridegroom.

A bright feature of the reception was a vocal solo by the bride, who sang "Because."

Following the reception Warrant Officer and Mrs. Brown left on the Prince Rupert on a honeymoon trip to Ketchikan. For travelling the bride wore a dress of pale blue wool with matching hat and veil. They will live in Prince Rupert where W/O Brown is posted with the navy.

PASSED AWAY
ABOARD TRAIN

William S. Anderson, Esteemed Resident of Terrace,
Succumbs Following Heart Attack

While being brought to the city with a view of being placed in the Prince Rupert General Hospital after having been stricken with a heart attack at his home at Terrace Tuesday night, William S. Anderson, well known and highly esteemed citizen of a quarter of a century's standing in the interior town, expired aboard train at 8:30 last evening. His wife and Mrs. Nigel Sherwood, acting as a nurse, were with him at the time. The end came while he was sleeping comfortably in a compartment.

Born in Scotland, sixty-oe years ago, the late Mr. Anderson, before leaving the Old Country, worked on the estate at Glamis of the Earl of Strathmore, father of Queen Elizabeth, where a daughter was born who was named after the Queen.

Mr. Anderson had been a resident of Terrace since 1920. For years he was in charge of the provincial department of public works shop. He also had a fine farm on the Bench where he specialized in raising of bees, the honey he produced being popular on the market. He recently sold the farm and took up residence in Terrace town. Two years ago his health began to fail and he had lived in retirement since that time.

Deceased was a past master of the Masonic Lodge at Terrace.

Besides his widow, Mr. Anderson is survived by a son, George, in Prince Rupert, and a daughter, Mrs. George (Elizabeth) McAdams of Terrace.

The remains will be taken on this evening's train to Terrace where the funeral will be held.

TO THE ELECTORS

OF PRINCE RUPERT
I am offering myself again as a candidate for election as Alderman. In 1943 and 1944 elections you consistently elected me and during that time I have been a member of the Health, Police, Relief and Licensing Committees, for two years member of the Finance Committee and have been the City Council representative on the Union Board of Health, the Recreational Council, the Public Relations Council and many other special committees. I have been a member of the Library Board for twelve years and chairman in 1945, and citizen's representative on the Civic Centre Association executive, for three years.

In asking for your vote again, I wish to be judged solely on past performance and if you think my services have been a useful contribution I trust that you will again favor me with your vote.

I represent all classes of voters and am guided only by my desire to serve the best interests of the city and its citizens.

ALDERMAN NORA E. ARNOLD.

MODERNIZING OF ELEVATOR

Improvements which it was felt should be made to the local grain elevator to bring it up to date and permit of more efficient grain handling were discussed at the meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce Monday night. An inconvenience which the war had brought to the elevator dock was the installation thereon of fuel oil pipes by the Navy. The question of improved sacking facilities was also mentioned. The outcome was the sending of a request to the government that steps be taken to modernize the plant. The whole idea was that the house should be put in shape so that fuller use of it might be made in the shipment of grain through the port.

GALLANT INDIAN ARMY

LONDON — The Indian Army's part in the victories which led to the Japanese surrender is acknowledged in news-reels being shown in the United Kingdom. The commentator pays a fine tribute to men of the veteran 5th Indian Division, which was the first to land in Malaya.
