Soo Suds Win Again

Port Edward Keeps Pace—Acropolis and Co-ops Share Intermediate Lead

After yielding only one run in 13 innings, "Squizz" Squizzato, Soo Suds pitcher, tripled in his team's half of the thirteenth inning to tie the score and came home on Larkin's single as the Suds defeated Air Force 3 to 2 last night in a Senior Softball League game at Gyro Park.

Winner of nine fixtures last season, Squizzato hurried shut-out ball until the ninth, when Air Force tied the score at one-all and allowed only one other run in the four extra innings. The winning moundman gave up just six hits in the whole game as he chalked up his second victory of the year.

The Air Force used two pitchers and both were effective. McLeod limited the opposition to a single counter in the first seven innings and, when Court took over on the hillcock, he shut out the Soo Suds for the next five but was charged with the loss since he allowed the two runs in the last of the thirteenth which gave Suds the victory.

The score by innings:
Air Force—

Soo Suds—

Batteries:

Soo Suds—Squizzato and Mar-inoff.

In another senior engagement Port Edward gained a crushing 27 to 12 triumph over the Coast Battery at the Port Edward diamond.

Acropolis Leads In Intermediate

In one of two intermediate league games at Algoma Park, the Acropolis M. P.'s defeated the Dry Dock 6 to 3 to join the Co-ops in first place. Fryman was the winning pitcher while the losing moundman, Clokie, was hurling his second game in as many nights.

Dry Dock 0 0 0 0 1 2-3

Instructor Honored By Signals Class

Members of the signal class of First Prince Rupert Regiment gathered at a happy dinner in Reid's Cafe a few nights ago to show their appreciation of the work of Sergeant Hankin. A presentation was made to Sergeant Hankin by Signalman Allen. Among those in attendance were Major C. J. Toombs, officer commanding, Capt. James James, Pacific Command signals officer, and Regimental Sergeant Major E. R. Macdonald. The signal class consist largely of boy members of the unit who have made good progress after a year of instruction by Sergeant Hankin, their proficiency being highly remarked upon by the command signals officer.

TUNESOME AND FUNNY FILM

A merry mixup of comedy, song and romance comes this Thursday, Friday and Saturday to the Capitol Theatre in "Here Come the Waves." The name cast brings Bing Crosby, Sonny Tufts and Betty Hutton together.

Susie and Rosemary Miller, twin sisters played by Betty Hutton in each case, decide to give up their dancing career in favor of joining the Waves. Johnny Cabot, played by Crosby, joins the Navy about the same time, meeting up with Windy (Sonny Tufts), an old chum. They go after Rosemary with love in their eyes. The boys pull every trick in the bag to outwit each other with poor Susie pushed aside like a wallflower. But, in the end, she wins her man, too.

The picture is full of musical numbers giving Bing and Betty ample opportunities to display their versatility.

LOOKING OVER MAJOR LEAGUES

We don't have to look very hard to pick out the highlights of yesterday's Major League baseball play. It was this—the Philadelphia Phillies finally won a game. But even then, they had to go 15 innings to do it. The Phils edged out Boston 5-4 to break their losing streak that saw them drop 16 straight games. Their win came in the second game of a double-header with the Braves, the Boston club having taken the first game 8-3. In the other two National League games played, Cincinnati squeezed out a 2-1 win over St. Louis, and Brooklyn edged out New York, 3-2.

Only two games were played in the American League. Detroit stretched its hold on first place to one full game, beating St. Louis 6-4. In the other American League contest, Chicago took a 5-3 win from Cleveland.

In the International circuit, both Canadian clubs won their games. Montreal beat Newark, 10-3 and Toronto took an 11-3 victory from Syracuse. Jersey City trimmed Rochester 5-4 and Buffalo beat Baltimore 6-4.

Here are today's games:
In the National League—Chicago at Pittsburgh, Philadelphia at Boston, New York at Brooklyn.

In the American League—St. Louis at Detroit, Boston at Philadelphia, Cleveland at Chicago.

In the International League—Montreal at Jersey City, Rochester at Newark, Buffalo at Syracuse.

Rugged Clothes for Rugged Children

Up into the tree Jean climbs to rescue poor pussy. Fun? You bet! Susy was supposed to water the Victory Garden but she's getting pretty wet herself. She's not worried though. No time to think about clothes when there's so much to do! That's why these smart youngsters are wearing rough and ready play clothes that can take it. Pretty too, but what Mother likes best is that they're all so easy to wash.
