V-DAY means not a thing to this husky young rascal, unless it is his Daddy's coming home. This little citizen is happy any day so long as he's well fed and feeling fine.

Yet he - above us all - is the one to shout for joy today. Is it not for him - and for millions of bright faces of his generation - that men have been willing to suffer and to lay aside their freedom — bit by bit — so that one day they might have it complete, secure?

Even so—the fruits of Victory are not alone for those too young to know the privations of war . . . not alone for posterity.

Here and now, men and women of our generation scarred and wearied by long, grinding years of war - shall know the blessings of a new-born day.

This new day is for the common man . . . for greater social justice, for broader opportunity to enjoy a richer, fuller life.

No thinking citizen here in Canada, or in any land touched by war, would believe for a moment that our problems are

The prospect ahead is no easy one . . . Yet it cannot daunt the hardy stock of Canada - the men and women who carved this nation out of a wilderness, who through the years have fought the good fight as each emergency arose - down to the last Victory Loan . . . down to the last blood donation.

No, the prospect is hard, but a new spirit is abroad. We Canadians, like all our Allies who have fought this fight with us, have been chastened by the ordeal, and we are determined - by the effort of the individual citizen . . . by the effort of the community — to bring a better, stronger, healthier world out of the raging storm through which we have passed.

This is a day for cheering not simply for victory over dictatorship, but for the assurance we have of the dawn of a better day.

Lhis message is published as an expression of faith in the future of Canada by the Bank of Montreal, which has been working with Canadians in all walks of life since 1817.

VINDICATED

All honor to our Canadian boys who, in fighting to victory, have faithfully reflected the heroic deeds of their fathers, 1914-18. They have preserved our national honor and heritage of freedom and justice.
