SHOWER FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Mrs. Elwood Weber, Former Dorothy Stiles, Honored
 A delightful surprise shower was held at the home of Mrs. Lance Stiles Tuesday evening in honor of her daughter, Dorothy, who was married recently in Seattle to Pcs. Edward Weber.
 The evening was spent in playing individual stunts and entertainment which caused much merriment. The prize winners for the evening were Mrs. A. Rivett and Mrs. C. G. Ham.
 At midnight delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses. Following this a presentation of a silver cake plate and casserole was made by Mrs. T. J. Boulter. The bride suitably responded and mentioned in her remarks that, in the establishment of her new home in the United States, her friends and associates in Prince Rupert would never be forgotten.
 Those attending the happy affair were Mrs. Jessie Boulter, Mrs. Joe Scott sr., Mrs. B. Sandison, Mrs. J. Fraser, Mrs. Robert Woods, Mrs. St. Amour, Mrs. C. Ham, Mrs. A. Mitchell, Mrs. Joe Jack, Mrs. Elmer Thompson, Mrs.

Wagon Wreckage Taken From River

SMITHERS, June 15.—Part of the wagon which was lost in the Bulkley River when F. H. L. Orsa met with a bad accident here last week, as his team of horses bolted and fell into the river, has now been recovered near the Bulkley River bridge at Smithers. The accident occurred several hundred yards up the river from the bridge and it would appear that, when the wagon turned over in the river, the king bolt dropped out, allowing the rear end of the wagon and the reach to separate from the front part to which the horses were hitched. No further sign of the remainder of the wagon or the horses has yet been found.

 Other presentations honoring Mrs. Weber included a silver cream, sugar and tray set presented by the Order of Job's Daughters of which organization Mrs. Weber has been a valued member, acting as guardian treasurer. The Eastern Star also presented Mrs. Weber with a beautiful chenille bedspread.
