ODD STORY OF MODERN FRANCE

"Till We Meet Again" at Capitol with Barbara Britton and Ray Milland

"Till We Meet Again" arriving at the Capitol Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, is a story of present-day France. It tells of a little French nun, who leaves the sheltered convent gardens to join the underground movement in order to help an American make today's headlines come true.

Beautiful Barbara Britton and Ray Milland co-star in this love story which takes place in the midst of all the terror and horror behind the liberation of France.

Barbara Britton, who plays Sister Clothilde, is said to give one of the most poignantly delicate portrayals. Faced with a dangerous assignment in a world she has never known, she lays aside her convent robes and in peasant dress, joins the strange American captain as his wife. Working with the French underground, their every step takes them nearer danger.

The little French nun, whom Milland knows only as a member of the Maquis, feels the weight of her responsibility as she struggles to fight for them both with only her faith to help her. Their relationship becomes a strangely beautiful thing as Milland talks of his country and his life and the convent girl pretends to understand.

A delicate, unfathomed love develops, of which neither of them speaks. Her love is not for any man and his belongs to another woman, yet each knows that it might be otherwise.

Klemtu Prepares Easter Program

KLEMTU, March 31.— Sacred music, which the native people were given by the white men is to have a large place in this community's celebration of Easter. The Klemtu Community Church choir, which is to celebrate its twenty-fifth anniversary tomorrow along with the celebration of Easter, will present Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus" and Haydn's "The Heavens are Telling" at a special service.

The Bella Bella choir will also spend Easter here. Chief Moody Hunchitt, and about 40 Bella Bella people arrived today.

In spite of the fact that Klemtu has been without a missionary since the start of the war, the choir has continued to be active and regular church services have been held by Chief Arthur Neasloss and Chief Philip Brown who are determined that Christian teaching will be carried on in the community.

Rev. P. R. Kelly of the United Church mission boat Thomas Crosby is to conduct the Easter service.

MONTREAL AND DETROIT WIN

MONTREAL, March 31.— Montreal Canadiens returned to the form that made them champions of the National Hockey League this winter to give the Toronto Maple Leafs a 10-3 beating in Montreal Thursday. Leafs still lead the eight-point series 6-4. Detroit Red Wings edged Boston Bruins 3-2 to take the lead in the other Stanley Cup semi-final. Detroit now leads the 3-point series 6-4.
