SOO SUDS TAKE ONE GAME LEAD

Close Play In Intermediate Softball League Semi-Final

With a barrage of hits in the eighth and ninth innings the Soo Suds Intermediates overcame a nine-run deficit to take the opening game of a best two out of three Intermediate Softball League semi-final series 10-9 from the Dry Dock.

Pahl and Wilcox led the Army team in hits, the former collecting three doubles and a triple while Wilcox gathered four singles.

A beautiful running catch by rightfielder, Denman of the Dry Dock headed off a Soo Suds rally that threatened to get started in the seventh inning. The game was played before approximately 500 fans at Gyro Park Sunday afternoon and, if the same brand of ball is dished up for the rest of the series, the spectators are in for a treat. The second game will be played at Algoma Park Wednesday evening. The other series between Fortress and Acropolis M.P.'s opens Monday night at Algoma.
