ANNOUNCEMENT
The races will start at the carnival grounds, Third Ave. and Eighth St., proceed west to Fifth St., south on Fifth St. to Fraser St., thence west on Fraser St. to Eighth St. and back to the starting point.

For the older age groups the course will be six laps, or three miles, while for the younger ones it will be four laps, or two miles. Entries can be made either with Mr. McDonald or at the office of George Rorie.

Thomas McMeekin, chairman of the tug-of-war committee, has heard rumors that a certain group of heavyweights can out-pull any other combination in the city and he is seeking entries to dispute that claim.

The carnival committee is offering prizes of $10 each to the winning team and $5 to the runners-up, and Mr. McMeekin hopes that at least four teams of six men each will answer the call
