CAMP FOR
SEA CADETS

Navy League officials announce that Whytecliffe summer resort will again be location for the summer training camp of 2000 British Columbia Sea Cadets. Last summer, 80 officers and men from Prince Rupert's R.C.S.C. "Captain Cook" attended summer camp after completing the longest trip of any corps who attended Whytecliffe. Under their commanding officer, Lt.- Cmdr. Alex Mitchell, the Rupert Cadets proved their expertise at handling boats.

While last year brought the Canadian Navy's patrol vessel H.M.C.S. "Malaspina" to camp as the training highlight, already the Navy has announced that five 16-foot sailing dinghies will be ready to put to sea. This will round out the 1945 summer camp syllabus promised Sea Cadets attending Whytecliffe.

Sea Cadets in British Columbia have been assured every support from the Navy League and the Royal Canadian Navy, according to Lieut. Grant Hooper, Sea Cadet liaison officer for the British Columbia mainland.

Lieut. Hooper has just returned to H.M.C.S. "Discovery" after attending a liaison officer's conference in Toronto in company with Lieut. Reg Gillman, R.C.N.
V.R., who represented the cadet's Vancouver Island headquarters, H.M.C.S. "Malahat," Victoria.
