Wambach Leaving Prince Rupert
Pete Wambach, for the past year and a half stationed here as assistant director for the United Services Organization, is leaving tomorrow night on his return to his home at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, to resume his normal civilian occupation. Pete has become well known and popular in both service and civilian circles here and many will regret his leaving.

James Parker arrived in the city today on the Prince Rupert from a brief trip to Vancouver, accompanied by Mrs. Parker and family who will resume residence in Prince Rupert after an absence of some years. They will live on Second Avenue in the Parker Block.

Charles Adam, Terrace moving theatre operator, arrived in the city yesterday on the Catala after a week's business visit to Stewart and is leaving by this evening's train for Terrace. Mr. Adam reports a renewal of optimistic interest and activity in mining in the Portland Canal area. New prospectors are coming in.
