of Commerce, Klondike Club, Ladies of the Moose, Provincial Department of Education and the Rotary Club. Although these organizations have contributed generously, the amount has proven insufficient to permit the establishment of a program that would provide recreational facilities for more than a small portion of the community. The members of the Recreational

Farewell a Big Dance

A farewell dance, the last big social function of the American Army on Acropolis Hill, was held last night in the Post Gymnasium. Former scene of many dancing parties, the most memorable to Prince Rupert citizens being the President's Birthday Ball last spring, the gym was crowded with several hundred soldiers of the Prince Rupert sub-port of embarkation and their guests.

Music for the dance was provided by the Sophisticates, under the direction of Sgt. Johnny Stroessler. Refreshments were served.

The farewell dance was arranged by Capt. Louis D. Magu-olo, Special Services officer, Lt.
Robert C. Farmer, and Staff Sergeant Merv Willoughby.

Many of the soldiers who attended will be leaving Prince Rupert tonight.
