DELIGHTFUL MUSICAL

A delightful movie has come to the Capitol Theatre in "Music for Millions," which stars little Margaret O'Brien with Jimmy Durante, Jose Iturbi and June Allyson.

It's the story of a little girl, played by Margaret, who comes to the city to stay with her big sister (June Allyson) and proceeds to become part and parcel not only of the lives of her sister and the latter's fellow (or girl) musicians in Iturbi's band, but of Iturbi himself and of Jimmy Durante, business manager par excellence.

At about the same time that Margaret discovers that June is going to become a mother, the other girls learn that June's husband has been reported missing in action in the South Pacific. How this is kept from the mother-to-be and the unexpected developments that lead to a most happy ending make for a tender and charming story.

Interspersed in a most logical and fitting manner is the music of the world's greatest composers including Victor Herbert, Chopin, Handel, Grieg and Tschaikowsky.

The picture is showing this week-end at the Capitol Theatre.

A railway fireman just turned 21, Vince Hawkins probably will start favorite when he climbs into the ring with veteran Ernie Roderick for the vacant British middleweight boxing title. The betting is that the two will meet sometime in June at London's Albert Hall. It has been a sensational rise for Hawkins, grim-visaged battler unknown a year ago. He has won each of his 68 professional fights and the latest, an eight-round verdict over Scottish champion Bert Gilroy, was his best. Roderick, 32, holds the British welterweight crown and hopes to add the middleweight title. He has lost none of his craftiness but has started to show his age and never could punch as hard as Hawkins, a furious fighter ever ready to take blows in exchange for one. The Hawkins-Gilroy clash was a duel between a natural fighter and a mellowed boxer. The Scot collected most of the points in the first half of each round, then Hawkins would take over with a non-stop two-fisted attack. Gilroy knew most of the moves but couldn't keep pace with his younger opponent. Hawkins showed one glaring fault that has also been seen in the style of Freedy Mills, British and Empire light-heavyweight champion. He rushed in without paying due regard to his defence and a heavy counter-punch could do plenty of damage.

Kid Berg, former British Empire lightweight champion who made a name in the United States years ago, announced at a cocktail party that he will make a comeback. Then the Kid signed to meet Eric Dolby, Derby welterweight, in London. He plans another half-dozen or so fights after that and "Then I'll be ready for a crack at Ernie Roderick for the welter title." Berg claims he is 35. Certainly he was topping London bills 20 years ago as a boy fighter. From the bench at Old Street police court, Magistrate F. O. Langley announced that Robert Jacobs, Metropolitan Police heavyweight boxing champion, had been killed in action in Europe. He was a lieutenant in the Royal Scots Fusiliers. "It is a matter of very great grief for all of us," the magistrate said. "I cannot imagine a finer gentleman." Jacobs, a constable attached to Old Street, joined the army as a private and was commissioned in nine months. One of the best police boxers in years, he won the police championships in 1939 and 1941 and lost only nine of 62 contests.

Stanley Cup Play-offs

Dope Sheet Being Upset

Toronto Maple Leafs and Boston Bruins are Both Two Games Up Now

MONTREAL, March 23 (CP) — Toronto Maple Leafs and Boston Bruins are both two up in the Stanley Cup play-offs as a result of last night's games. The Bruins defeated the Detroit Red Wings 4 to 2 and the Maple Leafs again downed the Montreal Canadiens 3 to 2. In the opening play-off games on Tuesday the Leafs had won one to nothing while the Bruins won 4 to 3. The dope sheet is being upset as both the Canadiens and Wings had been hailed as almost certain winners. The best out of seven series will be continued at the week-end.
