

National Hockey— Hawks And Wings Even

Chicago, New York and Detroit Winners Last Night

NE WYORK, Dec. 10 — There were three games in the National Hockey League last night and here are the scores:

At Chicago — Chicago Black Hawks 8, Boston Bruins 3.

At New York — New York Rangers 2, Toronto Maple Leafs 1.

At Detroit — Detroit Red Wings 2, Montreal Canadiens 1.

In the game at Chicago, the Black Hawks climbed into a tie for second place with the Detroit Red Wings by their victory over the Boston Bruins.

After a scoreless first period, Chicago took a 3-0 lead in the second session and then increased its lead in the third period. Boston scored all three of its goals in the final frame.

Smith, Mosenko and Kaleta each scored two goals for the Black Hawks. Cain scored two of Boston's three tallies and Bill Cowley got the other.

In the game at Detroit, all the scoring was crammed into the final eight minutes of play.

The Red Wings punched over the winning goal while short-handed. With a little more than three minutes to play and Jack Stewart of the Wings in the penalty box, Adam Brown of Detroit plunked home a 30-footer for the game-winning goal.

The first goal came with almost 13 minutes of the third period gone after the first two sessions were scoreless. Joe Carveth laced one home for Detroit and then Dutch Hiller tied it up for Montreal a few minutes later. At New York, the Rangers just squeezed through to victory over the Toronto Maple Leafs.

The Rangers picked up a pair of goals in the first period and then staved off the attacking Leafs in the final two sessions.

Toronto's lone tally came out of a scramble in the second period when Lorne Carr was credited with a goal after his shot had bounced off the skates of one of the Rangers into the net.

Both the New York tallies came on solo dashes. The first was by Mac Colville, two minutes after the opening whistle, and the second was by Lynn Patrick, with three minutes to play in the first period.
