Mr. King headed a multi-party Canadian delegation in person but left before the finish to conduct the general election cam-

He travelled across the country from the Pacific to the Atlantic, addressing some 10 public meetings and spending three days in his own constituency of Prince Albert. The country gave him a majority of the seats in the new House of Commons although much smaller than his pre-election majority.

The voters of Prince Albert whom he had represented from 1926 turned against him and he found himself without a seat. He ergy. found one in Glengarry in Ontario but had to fight a byelection to get it. He won the contest without making a speech or appearing in the constituency during the campaign but after the election made several visits get acquainted with the

San Francisco was just the start of international discusions for Mr. King. There he led the Canadian group in taking a stand for moderation as between the big powers who wanted control over the international organization vested in their hands and the smaller states who fought for equality. The Canadian position was that an organization was necessary and that no organization which did not have the full support of the major powers could work. Visited Britain

Electors Of Prince Rupert

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I desire to express my appreciation of the fact that you have expressed your confidence in me by again electing me as Mayor by acclamation.

I ask your advice and support in the administration of City affairs during the coming year and can assure that I shall at all times work for what I consider the best interests of the City.

Yours faithfully, H. M. DAGGETT.

Ernie Ratchford Back On Old Job

After six years, another of Prince Rupert's long service overseas veterans is back on the old civilian job. He is Ernie Ratchford who was being welcomed back this morning as he resumed his rounds for the Canadian National Express Co. following his return a few weeks ago after seeing a lot of action aboard with the Royal Canadian Artillery. He was one of the originals with the old 102nd., went active at the first of the war and was a sergeant on discharge. "Everything seems different," Ernie remarked cheer ily. "It seems strange working again after six years." Evidently, he did not count soldiering as

Y-E-Day!

The welfare of Prince Rupert and its citizens I consider of primary importance.

My efforts both in and outside the sphere of the City Council during a short term of office, have all been of a progressive nature.

I do not wish to see this city return to a state of stagnation, when there is every reason to believe, that by working together, we can bring about major development here in the near future.

My policy throughout has been to represent all classes of citizens impartially for the common good.

If my service on the City Council to date, meets with your approval may I respectfully request your continued support at the forthcoming civic election.
