LOCAL MAN IS WEDDED IN EAST

Word has been received in the city of the marriage in Brooklyn on February 6 of William Webster Wood, well known Prince Rupert man, to Miss Catherine E. Southard, daughter of Mrs. Monroe B. Southard of Arlington, Virginia. The marriage took place at First Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn with Rev. Phillips Elliott officiating. The groom was for years in the service of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. here, later representing the company in New York and now being in the fish distribution business on his own. His family home is still in Prince Rupert and it is not long ago that he visited here.

FUNERAL FOR TWO CHILDREN

Funeral services for Raymond Fossum, age 4, and Lorraine Hanburg, age 2, children of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hanburg, were held from Grenville Court Chapel at 2:30 Saturday afternoon.

Fresh violets, contributed by friends, were sprinkled on the bodies and caskets of the two children who perished a week ago Saturday night when smoke from a burning mattress filled their bedroom. There were many other floral tributes.

Friends filled the chapel as Rev. Magnus Anderson officiated at the service, joining in the hymns "Nearer My God To Thee" and "Safe In The Arms Of Jesus." Mrs. J. C. Gilker was organist.

Interment took place in Fairview Cemetery.

Each of the tiny caskets was carried by four pallbearers. They were B. Wick, Bert Hansen, K. Hallberg, Carl Rosang, Chris Fossum, Verne Fossum, Pete Wiekdal and Paddy Ivarson.
