LEAVE SMITHERS FOR VANCOUVER

community of Smithers will greatly miss the family of A. B. Washbern when they leave here to take up residence in Vancouver before the end of this month Having lived here for 20 years vacancy.

Mr. Washburn was very active in the Oddfellows and ever since the war he has had charge of the first aid classes every year He has turned out many St. John Ambulance graduates with his employee here of the railway but he has quit this employment to enter business for himself in Vancouver where he is at the present time.

Mrs. Washbern has always been an enthuiastic worker fo the Red Cross and prominent in musical and entertainment activities of the town and also in the Rebekah Lodge.

They have one son, Bud Wash-bern, with the Canadian forces in Italy, and have two sons and one daughter (Mrs. Mike O'Neill) in Smithers.

The community will wish them every success in their new work and location.

Try to imagine our world without the Red Cross

THINK what Red Cross packages from home mean to lonely prisoners-of-war. Think what the comforting socks, knitted by the Red Cross women volunteers, mean to our soldiers over there in the mud of battle. Think what blood serum means to the wounded. Think what Red Cross food and medical help mean to sick and hungry children in liberated lands. Think . . . and your own mental picture of what this war-torn world would be without the Red Cross will make you want to GIVE. . and give as much as you can.
