LABOUR EXIT PERMITS ARE STILL NECESSARY

Canada Still Needs Manpower For War Work And Other Essential Jobs

Persons at least sixteen years old wishing to leave Canada to seek or enter employment, even temporarily, STILL need Labour Exit Permits, unless they are in an exempt

Labour Exit Permits are issued by Employment Offices. Apply at the nearest Employment Office.

Persons leaving Canada on a bona fide business trip, or on a vacation, or on a social visit or call do not require Labour Exit Permits.

For example, persons going to the United States for a short visit or vacation or business trip do not require Labour Exit Permits.

Persons not requiring Labour Exit Permits include among others members of dramatic or athletic organizations leaving temporarily to perform outside of Canada; ministers of religion and commercial travellers.

Any one in doubt as to Labour Exit Permit requirements should consult the nearest Employment Officer who will issue a Certificate of Exemption where appropriate.

Customs Officers at border points have instructions to insist that each person leaving Canada shall either produce a Labour Exit Permit or prove that such a permit is not necessary.

CANADA STILL NEEDS MANPOWER. THEREFORE LABOUR EXIT PERMITS ARE STILL NECESSARY.
