HOT DOGS, COKE BAD BEATING

Strong muscles and a growing athletic ability were not the only rewards reaped by young George Stanton, Boilermakers' members of the Boilermakers' president, said last night. Athletic Club who took part in the activities of the 1944 season. The readily appreciated social benefits of hot-dogs, ice cream, proval of the boys' parents doughnuts and soft drinks were enjoyed at a party held for the boys at the Seal Cove Gymnasium Saturday.

Some 35 boys who have attended the boxing and physical culture classes during the season were entertained by the club | cations will include contenders leaders and threw themselves into the spirit of the afternoon with all the fervor they usually put into their athletic training.

SCHOOL GIRLS The ice cream particularly came in for heavy punishment and remained under attack until it gave out completely.

Presentations of wallets and gym shirts to the boys who took part in the boxing and gymnastic show on Boxing Day were made by President George S. Stanton and Johnny Colling-

Performing the important task of keeping the boys supplied with hot dogs were committee members Ernie Russell Riley Viereck, Bill White, Bert Loughlan and Bill Murphey. Mr. Ferguson, who looks after the gymnasium, exercised his usual careful supervision.
