▲ C.C.F. Club meeting tonight 8 p.m. Metropole Hall, Third Ave. (11)

Col. Black of the Pacific Command staff, Vancouver, arrived in the city Monday afternoon from the south.

Fred Russell, Y.M.C.A. business manager, Vancouver, arrived in the city Monday afternoon on the Princess Louise to visit the Y.M.C.A. war services unit here.

The Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, at its meeting last night, agreed to appoint a delegate to a committee representing the local service clubs which are planning the erection of a welcome to Prince Rupert arch at the entrance of the Prince Rupert Highway to the city.

W. L. Armstrong, Crawford Moore, Robert McKay and John McLeod were elected members of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce at last night's meeting. Mr. Armstrong, the only one of the new members present, was duly welcomed. A. S. Nickerson and Bruce Brown, who had been previously elected members, were also welcomed.

$150,000 IS NOT PEANUTS

The KAIEN CO-OP STORE provided goods of this value to its members during the past year. That is the reason the store has often been so crowded and customers inconvenienced. We are sorry about the delays that have sometimes occurred but steps have now been taken to provide more facilities and assure better service.

On Wednesday morning, January 10th, we open a new branch, to be known as the

- A full line of groceries will be carried.
- ALL TELEPHONE ORDERS will in future be handled through the SUBURBAN STORE.
- You are also invited to do your personal shopping at the new STORE whenever convenient. But wherever you live, drop in someday soon and become acquainted with the SUBURBAN STORE.
- For downtown shoppers, the CITY STORE at 251 THIRD AVENUE continues to be at your service.

How the CO-OP does Business:

For those not well acquainted with CO-OPS, here are a few facts:

1. CO-OPS first started in England a little over 100 years ago. Today the British CO-OPS have over 8,000,000 members.
2. Each CO-OP is owned and controlled by the people of the community it serves.
3. Membership is open to all.
4. Each member has one vote only in the control of the business.
5. Capital is supplied by the members who purchase shares.
6. Sales are made at regular market prices.
7. At the end of each year financial statements are made up to show the results of the year's operations. Any net surplus is the property of the members and is distributed IN PROPORTION TO PATRONAGE. In the last analysis this means that members get their goods at cost.
8. CO-OPS are neutral in race, religion, politics.
