FISHERIES DISTRICT 2 YIELDED MORE THAN $7 MILLION LAST YEAR

What does Prince Rupert owe to the sea?

Well, on the basis of a preliminary report of the value of fish and fish products gleaned from fisheries District Two during the 1944 season which closed November 30, no one in Prince Rupert can afford to turn up a nose at the odor of fish. For it is the aroma of wealth.

Preliminary estimates showed that fisheries district Number Two, of which Prince Rupert is the chief port, yielded more than $7,000,000 in wealth fish and fish products were during the 1944 season.

Of this, $6,000,000 worth of landed from Canadian boats for direct distribution or processing in district Two. More than $1,000,000 worth was caught by American boats and processed in this district.

Salmon, of course, headed the list with more than $4,000,000 worth being brought to canneries and freezing plants in the district. Halibut followed with a value of more than $2,000,000.

"JANIE" AT WEEK-END

Picture Which Has Been Looked For For Some Time Coming to Capitol

Bright and heart-warming comedy, commentary on youth in love, at play and up against a world which often proves too much for the elders, the picture "Janie" comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre this Friday and Saturday. Unprovisionally funny, it is also said to be moving and tender.

The story is about a group of teen-age youngsters and some visiting troops. It poses the timely problem of what to do with the body of teen-age youngsters too old to be excluded from community responsibilities engendered by the war but too young by law to be allowed to do anything constructive about it.

It is laid in a typical town with Joyce Reynolds the title role as a sensitive adolescent. Edward Arnold is father and Ann Harding is mother. Robert Hutton has male lead as a private in the Army. Other favorites take part are Alan Hale and Robert Benchley.

"Janie" has been looked forward to for some time and many are planning to see it.
