REQUIEM HELD FOR MRS. RIX

Congregation of Old Friends
Yesterday Afternoon at St.
Andrew's Cathedral

A simple prayer and psalm service for the late Mrs. G. A. Rix, wife of the Bishop of Caledonia, was held yesterday afternoon in St. Andrew's Cathedral prior to the sending of the remains to Vancouver where the funeral will be held. The remains lay in state throughout the day at the Cathedral and until the departure of the steamer Prince Rupert last night.

Many old friends of deceased assembled at the Cathedral for the service which was conducted by the dean, Very Rev. James B. Gibson, with Rev. E. W. Scott, rector of St. Peter's, Seal Cove, reading the scripture. The choir was in attendance with Peter Lien presiding at the organ. Hymns were "When on my Day of Life the Night is Falling" and "The Lord is My Shepherd."

The bereaved Bishop was accompanied by the next senior clergyman of the diocese, Canon W. F. Rushbrook, veteran retired coast missionary.

Pallbearers were J. D. Allen, G. P. Tinker, Levi Fitzgerald, R. E. Mortimer, R. L. McIntosh and Dr. L. W. Kergin.

Ushers were W. M. Watts and R. G. Birch.

'CHATHAM' SHOW APPRECIATED

Large and Responsive Audience Witnesses Performance at Port Edward

A large and responsive audience witnessed the H. M. C. S. Chatham Show in the Port Edward auditorium. The program featured a melodrama entitled "She Was Only a Farmer's Daughter But..." which was staged just before Christmas in the Naval Drill Hall in Prince Rupert.

Acts added to the original production included "Backstage at the Wrennery" and "Ramblings" by Leading Wren Hay-Roe, who was very popular with the audience.

The ventriloquist act of "Pusser Jones and Dorothy" was also quite well received.

Repeat performances by vocalist Yvonne Riffou and "Rita and the Rhythm Boys" also drew their share of applause.

In the melodrama, Lt. Stranix replaced drafted Surgeon-Lieut. Virtue as leading man and realistically played the role of Osgoode Smithers, a farm boy.

Leading Wren Sauve acted as stage manager as well as the most important female character.

As he did before, Petty Officer "Artie" Shaw brought down the house with his portrayal of the villainous "Mulberry Foxhall."

Music was again supplied by Frank Dutton and his 10-piece pit band.

C. H. Linton of the local Royal Bank of Canada staff is sailing tonight on the Cardena for Vancouver to enlist in the Canadian Army.
