VISITING GYROS RETURN SOUTH

Loud in their appreciation of an interesting visit and of hospitality which had been generously extended to them while here, a party of 10 Gyro Club members headed by Governor Jack Ryan of Nanaimo, who came here as a delegation to take part in the installation of 1945 officers of the local club, sailed Saturday night on their return south. Prior to the departure of the visitors, there was an informal Gyro farewell party in the Empress Hall. A number of local Gyros were at the boat to see the party off.

> Sale of the halibut boat Margaret I, owned by George Fritz, is reported along the waterfront. The vessel has been sold to two well known skippers, Al (Long Al) Woie and Tom Dybhavn, of Vancouver. The Margaret of about 60 foot length, operated in the Fishermen's Reserve fleet for some time earlier in the war, being released from service she served as a fish packer. The purchasers are both skippers of long standings. "Long Al" was master of the Sea Ranger last season, and was formerly skipper of the Joan W. I, while Tom Dybhavn is owner of the Vancouver boat Polland.

REGIMENTAL ENJOYABLE

Seventy-five or so members of the personnel of Prince Rupert Machine Gun Regiment enjoyed a smoking concert at the Armory Saturday night, it being a jolly get-together for members of the unit. Lieut. R. E. Montador organized the affair and acted as master of ceremonies.

The entertainment program featured selections by a string orchestra, including a number of interesting Russian numbers, and also the showing of a moving picture "The Song of Russia." Lieut. J. A. Teng also entertained with story-telling.

Community singing was entered into with spirit by the gathering with Lieut. H. A. Ponder as leader.

Refreshments were served in good abundance.
