pation and administration men, home by April 20.

In Canada demobilization continued at a rate of 65,000 month and it is assumed that the last discharge will take place shortly after the last repatriate arrives home.

The general plan of rehabilitation laid down by the government has untangled most of its knots, the veteran entering civilian life with mustering out benefits, guarded health and professonal and vocational training.

The year also saw Gen. Mc-Naughton, the former commander in the field, go down to defeat at the polls and be succeeded as Defence Minister by a First Great War gunner-Hon. Douglas Abbott.

Other service highlights were the resignation of Gen. Crerar from the command of the 1st Army after it disbanded at the end of hostilities; the appoint-Foulkes, former overseas commander, to the post of chief of the general staff; the resignation of Rear Admiral L. W. Mur-Atlantic, after criticism was Day riots in Halifax; and the abandonment of the preparations to send navy, army and air force contingents to the Pacific.

It is a matter of history now that the Bombers away with fire hazard and burnlost that final 35-0. But not too ing out of bulbs," he explains. many tears are being shed over the trouncing by the western clan. The reason is simple. The $5,000 cut is the juiciest meloncutting for the Bombers in the years of Grey Cup competition.

Winnipeg president Art Chipman told the newsmen that at the start of the season he told his club that it would be a strictly amateur year and that anybody who wanted to hang up his uniform at that time. Instead. the players decided to stick with the team. Chipman said the regular season but now the | St. Mary's team. 27 regular members will get piece of the $.5000 East-West bonanza.

It has been announced, incidentally, that the grid veteran, Chess McCance, has played his iast football. The only regret the Bomber captain says he has is that his squad had to suffer such an overwhelming defeat under Coach Bert Warwick,
