the Montreal Royals split a dou-bleheader with the Baltimore PLAYOFFS OPEN

Playoffs in the Prince Rupert Ladies' Softball League were opened Monday night as Booth Memorial High School trounced Women of the Moose, 21 to 9, on Acropolis Hill, while the C.W. A.C.'s defaulted to the Allies at Gyro Park.

Bo-Me-Hi scored 13 runs in the second inning and from there on in Betty Hamilton had little trouble chalking up her ninth victory of the season on the mound.

Joyce North, Booth first-baseman, led the winners' hitting parade with two home runs while Sheila Cowie and Miss Hamilton connected for one apiece.

The score by innings follows: 4 2 2 000 1-9 Bo-Me-Hi 1(13)2 023 x-21 Batteries: Moose-Rowe and Dickens; Bo-Me-Hi - Hamilton and Cowie.

The game between the Allies and the Canadian Women Army Corps got under way but in the fourth inning the C.W.A.C.'s catcher, McKnight, injured her hand and was forced to the sidelines. Since the army representatives didn't have an extra player the fixture had to be defaulted.
