REGINA, March 10-The C.C.F. government is going into business "where the cream is," Natural Resources Minister J. Phelps declared in a legislature debate here, discussing aspects of the government - in - business pro- 1 gram of Saskatchewan. Phelps * said his department was survey- * ing possibilities of a puip mill, processing of lignite coal and "a | ertain other industry." He did 10:15-Dal Richards' Orchestra not elaborate on the latter. 10:30-Saturday Night Seranade

The government, he said, had turned down two-year contracts for the full output of the brick plant at Estevan, recently purhased, and the woollen mill at I Moose Jaw, now being set up. These had not been accepted because the government wanted ? the products for the "needs of the people of Saskatchewan."
