17-INNING BALL GAME

And Then American Sergeants And Corporals Could Not Settle Grudge

What was scheduled as a seven-inning game went on for 17—that's right, 17—frames on Acropolis Hill last night as the Corporals and the Sergeants collided in a grudge softball game which was finally halted by darkness with the score tied five-all. The two United States Army teams will resume their rivalry on Labor Day, Monday, on the hill and civilians will be welcome.

Vince Cook, who has pitched for the Northwest Service Command team in the Acropolis inter-company league this season, was on the mound for the Sergeants, while Art Fryman, hurler for the M.P.'s, Intermediate Softball champions of Prince Rupert, was the Corporals' slab artist.

Randall caught for the Corporals while Stockstill was behind the plate for the Sergeants.

Allies and Bo-Me-Hi Each Have One Win in Play-offs

The Allies, champions in 1944, kept in the running for the Prince Rupert Women's Softball League championship by trouncing the Bo-Me-Hi club 15-1 last night at Algoma Park to even up the best-of-three games final series at one win apiece.

Scoring in every inning except the fifth, the Allies took full advantage of Bo-Me-Hi errors by following them up with hits. The Allies tallied three runs in the first and third frames, one in the second and fourth, two in the sixth and five in the seventh.

Margaret Morgan had the Booth hitters eating out of her hand throughout the game as she easily chalked up her eleventh victory of the season while Betty Hamilton, the losing pitcher, suffered her second setback.
