HERO" HERE

In "Hail the Conquering Hero," which comes as the feature offering on the screen of the Capitol Theatre next Monday and Tuesday, Eddie Bracken plays the part of a disappointed marine, discharged on account of hay fever; who masquerades as a returning hero over his own objections. To make matters worse, his home town neighbors put liam Demarest and five other Apply it at night. tough companions who are home from the war on furlough. The result of it all makes hilarious comedy involving a love triangle. mistaken identity and a few realserious moments.

Ella Raines plays the part of the girl whom Eddie left behind and among the home town cohorts are Raymond Walburn, Franklin Pangborn, Bill Edwards, Chester Conklin and Victor Potek with the surprise actor Freddie Steele, once a top flight boxer, who plays the part of an orphan who joins the marines and seeks motherly love. A special attraction at the Capitol next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be an official picture of the provincial Department of Trade and Industry depicting in color the official opening last September of the Skeena River Highway. Its showing has been made possible through the co-operation of Hon. E. T. Kenney and Mayor H. M. Daggett.

ATHLETIC CLUB Q. How can I drive a nail into IS DISCUSSED

The future operatio nof the athletic club established by the Boilermakers' Union at the old Seal Cove School was discussed at a meeting held Wednesday night. The boilermakers expect they will have to relinquish in the near future. Present at the meeting were representatives of the Kinsmen's, Gyro and Rotary Clubs, Canadian Legion and Boilermakers' Union.

Whether the various clubs will contribute to the operation of the athletic club is a matter which was left to them to decide. James Nicoli of the Boilermakers' Union presided at the meeting and others present were Bruce Stevens, Clarence Thomson and William Jarmson, representing the Kinsmen; R. C. St. Clair and Crawford Moore, Rotary Club; William Lambie, Gyro Club, and Angus Macdonald, Canadian Legion.

The athletic club has a membership of about 50 children up to 16 years of age with a few young men and a women's class. There is about $600 worth of equipment and the club is well established in its quarters with training staff a tie- and another of those ex- organized. Physical training and boxing are among the activities.
